ORGANIZATION

The Golden Husk is owned and operated by the Valley Performing Arts Theater Board which is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. The board is excited to offer this facility as a place to experience the arts and connect with community.

Ribbon cutting held on Saturday, November 28, 2016

VISION

The Golden Husk is a hub for engaging creative resources, empowering community connection and enriching quality of life.

Spectators anxiously awaiting the start of the evening's performance.

HISTORY

The historic theater was built in 1928 and has housed live performances and film productions through the years. The beautiful paneled walls are made of cornhusks which provide excellent acoustical qualities.
